International Women's Day celebration at VAMNICOM 8th March 2022

International Women's Day was celebrated at VAMNICOM on 8th March 2022. The theme for International Women's Day was "Gender equality today for a sustainable tomorrow. Mrs. Rajeshwari Kori, Commandant of Civil Defense Staff College, Government of Maharashtra was invited to address the audience online. Mrs. Kori had a distinguish carrier and in an ex level officer with 25 years of Government service. She is the first Indian women in the Asians sub continent to be posted on board a naval worship as logistics officer and is distinguished in Limca book of record in 1997. She is the recipient of the Yashaswini Award given in a way by Ministry of Defense. She was welcomed by Dr. Jyotsna Dhavle, HoC, CGS and overall coordinator of this event.

The address of Mrs. Kori was extremely valuable and inspiring for the young PGDM students who will be starting their career shortly. She spoke about her journey from the naval days to being a part of civil defense structure. The bottom line of her speech was to be modest everywhere possible but be immodest in select situations. She explained the role of civil defense organization and informed the audience as to have they could do the courses offered by the organization and its value in enhancing weightage in the biodata.

Shri V. Sudhir, Registrar gave the vote of thanks. The program was attended by staff, faculty and PGDM students. The second part of the program was hosted by the PGDM-I students. The students recited the Saraswati Vandana and commenced the program.

Women faculty and staff of the Institute were felicitated by the student with a rose.

Two speeches by the students were organized as under :

1. Speech on "Latest trends in sanitization for slum dwellers - Impact on women slum dwellers by Ms. Haripriya

2. Speech on “Gender equality today for a sustainable tomorrow” by Ms. Akila

A demonstration by Shri Vikram Singh Prabhakar in self defense of women was arranged and was interesting and useful and also was the need of the hour.

The function ended with vote of thanks by the anchors.
