“Cooperative Training is not merely a prerequisite but a permanent condition of cooperative activities”

- Vaikunthbhai Mehta

ABOUT THE INSTITUTE

In the year 1964, a high-level group appointed by the Government of India under the Chairmanship of the late Prof. D.R.Gadgil to assess the training needs of the co-operative sector, recommended the setting up of a National Institute which would undertake the training of senior personnel in the co-operative institutions/departments, conduct fundamental/applied research and provide consultancy services, organize courses in business management for senior personnel in cooperative business organizations and train the youth on various facets of Management. Central Institute of Management for Consumer's Business (CIMCOB) was merged with the National Cooperative College and Research Institute (NCCRI) to form the present National Institute. As a tribute to the doyen of the Cooperative Movement late Shri Vaikunth Mehta, the National Institute was named after him, as Vaikunth Mehta National Institute of Cooperative Management (VAMNICOM) in April 1967.

The Vaikunth Mehta National Institute of Co-operative Management (VAMNICOM) is conceived as an intellectual nerve centre for the Co-operative Movement and functioning under the aegis of National Council for Cooperative Training, promoted by the Ministry of Cooperation, Govt. of India. Besides conducting management development training programmes in various functional areas of management, the institute has three long duration programmes viz. (a) PGDCBM programme for in -service officers working in cooperatives (b) PGDM – Agri-Business Management (ABM) which is equivalent to MBA degree for fresh graduates and (c) Diploma in Management of Computer Operations for middle level and operational level personnel in the cooperatives. The Institute possesses state-of-the-art infrastructure, well qualified and experienced faculties and provides a conducive environment for Management Education, Co -operative Research and Training. Through constant interaction with various sectors of cooperatives, the Institute has been able to fulfill various training requirements of the cooperatives in the country.

VAMNICOM associates with various international agencies / organisations like the International Co-operative Alliance (ICA), International Labour Organisation (ILO), Food & Agricultural Organisation (FAO), Asian & Pacific Agricultural Credit Association (APRACA), etc. The institute conducts exchange programmes in collaboration with the Department of International, Technical & Economic Co-operation (ITEC), Ministry of External Affairs and offers training programmes for senior executives from cooperatives in developing countries. Also, it conducts collaborative programmes with National Institute for Co-operative Development (NICD), Sri Lanka, Association of Asian Confederation of Credit Unions (ACCU), Bangkok, Thailand, the Cooperative College of Malaysia, Malaysia. The institute has also been an active promoter in the establishment of the Centre for International Co-operation and Training in Agricultural Banking (CICTAB) which is engaged in organizing training programmes in the field of agricultural / rural banking to professionals from SAARC countries.

VISION

VAMNICOM is conceived as an intellectual nerve centre for the co-operative movement. It caters to management development through training, education, research and consultancy needs of various co-operative organizations, government departments, and other national bodies. agriculture and rural development.

MISSION

The mission of VAMNICOM is to facilitate building cadres of professional managers to key positions in the ever-growing number of cooperatives through management development training, education, research, and consultancy.

FOCUS

- Provide educational facilities for young men and women seeking a career in management through the Post Graduate Diploma in Management (PGDM) & Post Graduate Diploma in Co-operative Business Management (PGDCBM) Programmes.
- Applied research and disseminate the information through publications in addition to library retrieval and documentation services.
- Assist organizations in solving their management problems by providing consultancy services.
- Participate in and contribute to the formulation of policy for co-operatives.
- Collaborate with other institutions in India and abroad to further its objectives.

QUALITY POLICY

- To provide quality training, consultancy and other related services to key national and international stakeholders.
- To impart quality education through continuous research, review and feedback from stakeholders.
- To undertake quality research in cooperatives, agriculture, rural development and related areas.

ABOUT PGDCBM

Centre for Cooperative Management (CCM) under the roof of VAMNICOM conducts Post Graduate Diploma in Cooperative Business Management (PGDCBM) since 1967, though earlier titled as Diploma in Cooperative Business Management, to ensure quality management education for Executives of Cooperatives in India and SAARC nations. The fundamental objective of the course is to provide opportunities to the executives in the cooperative sector to develop their managerial skills through constant exposure to modern management concepts, methods and techniques and to infuse a high order of enterprise management into the cooperative sector. The programme has been designed for in-service senior-level personnel working in Cooperative Organizations and Departments and youth who wants to take Entrepreneurship in Cooperative. Thus, the programme enables participants from the Co-operative and allied areas to equip with the appropriate managerial know-how to meet the emerging challenges of today's business environment.

The Ministry of Cooperation has taken several steps to strengthen and expand the cooperative sector. These include making PACS multipurpose, computerizing them, establishing new multipurpose societies in every village, implementing a decentralized grain storage program, providing tax relief and financial support to cooperative societies, facilitating their inclusion in government programs, and establishing a National Cooperative University. These measures aim to achieving Sahakar se Samrudhi mission (Prosperity through Cooperation). With these recent initiatives at the policy & programme level, human resource associated with the cooperatives have to be equipped with the latest management concepts & techniques suiting to the changing context at national & global level for cooperatives. Therefore, PGDCBM programme has been restructured with the revised curriculum with the duration of 36 weeks 20 Weeks Online Teaching-Learning, 6 weeks on Campus Teaching/Learning Components and 10 Weeks for the project work (at the place of work) commencing 57th Batch Post Graduate Diploma in Cooperative Business Management (PGDCBM).

OBJECTIVES OF THE PROGRAMME

- To impart the latest management concepts, techniques and practices of co- operative management to the participants.
- To infuse and inculcate professional skills and attitude in participants to manage cooperatives effectively.
- To expose the participants to the actual functioning of cooperatives through field visits to various cooperative institutions.

NEED OF THE PROGRAMME

- Education, training and information are in the core of cooperatives as it is the fifth principle of cooperatives, safeguarded by the ICA
- The PGDCBM programme enables participants from the cooperative and allied areas to equip with the appropriate managerial knowhow to meet the emerging challenges of today's business environment.
- Through PGDCBM programme, participating officials will be able to learn how to cooperate, participate and manage the co-operative they are employed with. Furthermore, PGDCBM program equips the participant with an important asset in attracting and maintaining membership but also in ensuring sustainability.
- The program provides in-depth knowledge and information to participants about application of the principles, practice and methods of cooperation as a way of conducting business.
- In order to build strong member-controlled co-operatives and involve the Youth, Women and Weaker sections of Society, emphasis on participating in PGDCBM program is a must.

SPECIAL FEATURES

To facilitate quality education and effective students' engagement institute provide:
